MAYOR ROACH TO CUT RIBBON AT NEWLY RENOVATED EBERSOLE ICE RINK WITH FROSTY AND RUDOLPH

WHITE PLAINS, NY – November 30, 2015. After a summer of renovation, the Ebersole Ice Rink at Delfino Park, has opened to the public and is ready for a Winter of fun on the ice. Join Mayor Thomas Roach on Saturday, December 5th at 1:15 p.m. for a ribbon cutting followed by a public session of skating with Frosty, Rudolph and Free Hot Chocolate.

The Ebersole Ice Rink has been a fixture in White Plains for 55 years. The renovation ensures that the facility will continue its long tradition of hosting recreational skating, hockey programs, group lessons, and public sessions, and, of course, that it remains the home rink for the White Plains High School and Stepinac Hockey teams.

Upgrades include new compressors, dasher boards, and protective tempered-glass around the entire rink. In the warming room patrons will find new rubberized-matted flooring, new furniture, including high-top tables and chairs.

Ebersole Ice Rink is located in Delfino Park at 110 Lake Street. It is open for public skating on Wednesdays and Thursdays, 12:00 – 2:00 p.m., Fridays, 3:00 – 5:00 p.m. and 8:00 – 10:00 p.m., Saturdays, 1:15 - 4:30 p.m. and Sundays 8:30 -10:15 a.m. (adults only) and 1:00 – 5:00 p.m. Admission is $8.00 /Youth, $10.00/Adult and $5.00 /Seniors. Skate rentals are $5.00. For additional information call the Ebersole Ice Rink at (914) 422-1390.
